

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Let me clarify that I think that my amendment would apply broader than retailer, it would also apply to individuals selling bikes, which is common that among private individuals selling off bikes that they own. I think at that time existing bikes in the market and I think they rotate quite frequently between families of varying ages and also part of the private seller. OK?

PRESIDENT: All right, we still have the Simpson Amendment before us which changes the date. Question is - shall the Simpson Amendment be adopted - all those in favor say aye - those opposed say no. All right, the question is shall the Simpson Amendment be adopted, all those in favor, vote aye - all those opposed, vote no. This is a vote on the Simpson Amendment. You're voting on the Simpson Amendment which changes the effective date of the bill -- from '76 to '75. Once again, the Chair would ask if you have all voted. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 10 ayes - 16 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Motion is lost. Are there other amendments to the bill?

CLERK: None

PRESIDENT: All right, Senator Moylan, we're back to you with the bill now - no more amendments.

SENATOR MOYLAN: Mr. President, Members of the Legislature, I move that LB 827 be advanced to the E & R, as amended.

PRESIDENT: Is there any further discussion of the bill? Question is - shall LB 827, as amended, then be advanced from General File to E & R. All those in favor of advancing the bill will vote aye - all those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? Once again - have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 32 ayes - 1 nay, Mr. President, on motion to advance.

PRESIDENT: Very good. 827 is advanced. The Chair has the privilege this morning of introducing former Senator Leroy Feister, who is visiting here today. He's under the south balcony - Leroy would you step out so the Legislature can welcome you please. Senator Feister - former Senator Feister over there - excuse me - north balcony - OK. Pleased to have you here as a visitor. All right, we have some other business ----

CLERK: We have an amendment to LB 772 by Senator Maresh that he would like to have inserted in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: So ordered.
